

Scope of Knowledge for Master of Psychiatry MedEx

The entrance examination consists of:

- 30 True-False multiple choice questions (MCQ)
 - There is no minus marking.
 - Questions on neuroscience and basic psychiatry.
- 10 One Best Answer (OBA) questions
 - Questions on psychiatric disorders encompassing the clinical assessment, diagnosis and clinical management.

The duration of the examination is 1 hour 30 minutes.

The examination will cover the topics briefly described below:

1. Neurosciences

This comprises scientific disciplines of neuroanatomy, neurophysiology, neurochemistry, psychopharmacology, psycho-immunology, genetics, basic statistics and psychological sciences. These are essential knowledge which form the basis of understanding majority of psychiatric disorders.

2. Basic Psychiatry

This comprises phenomenology and psychopathology, socio-cultural, religion and spirituality in psychiatry. The knowledge forms the fundamental basis in understanding symptoms formation and clinical disorders in psychiatry.

3. Psychiatric Disorders

This comprises common psychiatric disorders and associated conditions. The knowledge is essential in the clinical assessment, diagnosis and clinical management.